

HOT Sheet

Hot POPCORN

When AnnaLynne McCord's in snacking mode, she reaches for Popcorn, Indiana — a low-calorie, gourmet treat. Her favorite is the Original Kettlecorn, but other delicious flavors include Buffalo Cheddar, Sea Salt and Movie Theater Popcorn. $2.50 to $4 for a single bag (depending on size); once you're hooked, you can order in bulk! popcornindiana.com

PHOTO BY BRYAN SWANSON

Hot HOTEL

The Back Bay Hotel in Boston used to be the city's police headquarters — but aside from the original blue outdoor lanterns and a small artifact display case, you'd never know it! The property is now home to 225 luxe guest rooms and the trendy Stanhope Grille. Reps say Meryl Streep has stayed. Rooms start at $215 per night; doylecollection.com

Hot FINANCES

It's that time again! We know doing your taxes can be a drag, but thanks to the TurboTax Federal Free edition, filing is now easy on you and your wallet! The software is like a GPS system, guiding you through your return step by step, ensuring you get your maximum refund! Wondering how much that could be? Download the new, free TurboTax TaxCaster app for iPhone — it'll give you a quick estimate, which is a good incentive to get started. turbotax.com ★

