spotted: the cast of gossip girl munching popcorn, indiana

by laurel pantin january 12, 2010

Call me crazy, but just like there was a bacon craze starting a few years ago, and then a cupcake frenzy, I predict popcorn hysteria to hit any moment. I feel like lately I've seen a slight increase in fancy popcorn brands at the grocery store, which is fine by me because I love it! (I actually not too long ago got this super-neat old-school popcorn popper because I refuse to own a microwave, and I'm totally obsessed with it). Adding more evidence to my case is Popcorn, Indiana, an awesome line of healthy popcorn that the cast of Gossip Girl allegedly can't get enough of. Once a month, the cast orders cases of both the Famous Original Kettle Corn and Movie Theater Popcorn. My personal favorite is Cinnamon Sugar, which has yet to hit the shelves (and made me lose any shred of self-control). The best part is because popcorn is a whole grain, this snack is actually pretty healthy and surprisingly low in calories. I'm officially hooked! Find it at Popcornindiana.com.
